Dear friends of go4peace,

In this Holy Year, in which Pope Francis invites us to walk as pilgrims of hope, Mariaklelia from Albania shares a "strong moment of hope" from her life in this March edition.

"A few months ago I took a written exam. I was pretty sure I would get a good grade. But when the result came, it different. I had failed, a real shock for me.

I thought about what to do now. I wrote to the professor, with whom I have a hard time on a human level. He then offered me a meeting.

"When we met, I experienced him very differently than in the lectures. He was very kind and approachable. We discussed the exam, and he asked me a few more questions to test how much I had learned and understood. After that, he said that I had passed the exam and added, 'Now you have to smile!' I was so happy."

In this month of March, let's join forces with Mariaklelia in the motto: Don't give up!
