

Casual meetings go4peace 2021

Nameless but not inactive were a lot of people who met Jesus rather by chance. Without knowing their names, their messages have an impact on our lives today. For the year 2021 we have chosen 12 such encounter stories from the gospel to be inspired by them.

In January, we will set off into the year with an unknown wise man from the east. In February, we meet a nameless woman who found it difficult to remain faithful. During Lent we meet the look of a man who was crucified with Jesus and in April we are on the road with one of the two disciples of Emmaus whose name we do not know. In May we will be amazed by the faith of a pagan centurion and in June we meet the little boy who gives Jesus his two fishes and five loaves of bread and becomes a witness of the multiplication of the bread.

In July, we will be touched by the testimony of a woman who cries for Jesus' feet and dries them with her hair. After that the rich young man will ask us what we are ready to give for Jesus. In August, we meet a woman who could not lift her eyes under the burden of her life and in the following month, we meet a mother who, as a non-Jew, asks Jesus to heal her child. In November, we experience Jesus being touched by the immense suffering of a nameless widow of Naim and in December, we sit next to an old woman who gives God all she has with two copper coins.

Let us be moved by the testimony of these people. We are looking forward to an eventful new year!
